Bank of San Francisco Welcomes Jay D. Shaffer to Board of Directors

SAN FRANCISCO – July 20, 2009 -- Ed Obuchowski, president/CEO of Bank of San Francisco, is pleased to announce that Jay Shaffer, co-founder and partner of Colton Commercial & Partners, has joined the bank's board of directors.

Shaffer in 2007 co-founded Colton Commercial & Partners, a full-service commercial real estate company headquartered in San Francisco. He specializes in the sale and leasing of commercial office space in the San Francisco market.

Shaffer has worked in commercial real estate since 2004. Prior to that, he was a general manager for American Golf Corp., the Nation's largest golf management firm. He was on the Board of the Young Adult Division of the Jewish Federation and was a member of Bank of San Francisco's Advisory Council. He has a bachelor's of science degree in managerial economics from the University of California, Davis.

"As a Marin County native, Jay's local experience and relationships, combined with his entrepreneurial spirit, will make him an invaluable asset to our board and bank," Obuchowski said.
