Bank of San Francisco Announces Date and Time of its 2021 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, to Be Held Virtually, via Teleconference

SAN FRANCISCO – June 8, 2021 – Bank of San Francisco, (OTCQX: BSFO), the modern Bay Area community bank that supports the entrepreneurial goals of people, businesses and nonprofits, announced today the date and time of its 2021 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Bank of San Francisco's 2021 Annual Meeting of Shareholders will take place at 5:00 p.m. PDT on Tuesday, June 22, and will be held virtually, via teleconference.

With the safety of its shareholders and employees top of mind, the Bank will hold the meeting virtually, via teleconference, at www.meetingcenter.io/272895292, with the password BSF2021. The Shareholder Meeting Notice, which was mailed out last month, also provides instructions for how to attend the meeting via teleconference. The control number, which is required to attend the meeting virtually, is located in the gray circle on the first page of the Shareholder Meeting Notice and Annual Meeting Proxy Card. Shareholders will be able to vote during the meeting and ask questions following the close of the regular meeting, all virtually.

The Bank utilized Computershare's online document hosting this year, which allows shareholders to view the Proxy Statement, Proxy Card and 2020 Annual Report through the investor voting website. Instructions to review these materials are included on the Shareholder Meeting Notice that was mailed out to shareholders. If you would like to receive a copy of the proxy materials hosted online, the Shareholder Meeting Notice provides instructions to request copies by internet, phone and email. Proxy voting this year will be similar to years past. Shareholders may vote online, by phone, or by mailing in their Proxy Card, the latter of which includes instructions for all three options. We encourage shareholders to vote as soon as they have received their proxy materials.

"At the meeting, we very much look forward to reviewing our financial performance and providing updates to our shareholders on the Bank's key strategic initiatives," said Ed Obuchowski, CEO of Bank of San Francisco.
